WHAT A TERM IT HAS BEEN!

Last week was a memorable week in our community as our K-2 students engaged in their major excursion to Altina Wildlife Park. All children who attended displayed tremendous behaviour and engagement in the experiences, with complements received from staff at the venue regarding our children. Well done to everyone involved!

Last Tuesday saw our school host the Riverina Girls Basketball Final at the Leeton Stadium in front of a fun and engaged crowd! A full report is contained in Talking Sport, however we would like to congratulate our team on making it to this stage of the competition and thank all community members who were able to come along and support our team.

The final week of what has been an incredible term at Parkview is under way. Please consider the following as you plan for the week and the holiday period that follows:

Footy Colours and Cup Cake Day

The tradition of our SRC's Footy Colours and Cup Cake Day supporting the 'Fight Cancer' Foundation returns this Friday, 22nd September. In addition, the SRC will be selling delicious cupcakes as a tasty treat at Recess on the day as well.

The cost of the cup-cakes will range between $0.50 and $1.00. We thank you for your support of this important fundraiser.

WEEK 10 TERM 3

Riverina Girls Basketball Final

The Riverina Final of the NSWPSSA Girls Basketball Knockout was hosted last Tuesday, 12th September at the Leeton Indoor Stadium with Parkview taking on defending NSW Champions Franklin PS.

The game was highlighted by wonderful teamwork, sportsmanship and skill from both sides, with a stadium packed with cheering Parkview students and community members adding to what was a very memorable experience for all athletes.

The game itself saw a talented Franklin progress to the NSW finals recording a 28-point victory over our determined team. For Parkview, the score did not reflect the evenness of the game, but we just couldn't seem to get the ball to go into the basket in the first half!

All of our players represented our school with distinction and the team has taken us on an exciting ride throughout the year, with the first game of our journey being played right back in February!

A huge thank you is extended to everyone who came to support the team on Monday and to Mrs Irvin who provided such wonderful coaching throughout the competition!
