PARKVIEW PUBLIC SCHOOL

WEEK 7 TERM 2 Commencing Tuesday 11th June 2024

Welcome to a shortened but jam-packed Week 7 of the term at Parkview Public School. Whilst only 4 days long, the week includes Kindergarten 2025 Information Sessions, Riverina PSSA Cross Country, Premiers Debating Challenge, Parkview In Lights preparations and much, much more!

Last week was a massive week in our community with a huge range of opportunities and experiences for our students and broader community.

There were many highlights including the outstanding performance of our Senior Dance Ensemble at Riverina Dance Festival on Friday at the Albury Entertainment Centre. This group has been working extremely hard for many months and should be absolutely proud of how they represented our community on Friday afternoon and evening. Thanks is extended to the community members who travelled to Albury for this event and to Mrs Julie Axtill, Miss Kelsey Deeves and Miss Chelsea Axtill for their contributions to our dance program.

The week was also memorable for the achievements of our Representative Netball Team who qualified for the Riverina Quarter Finals of the NSWPSSA Netball Knockout under the guidance of Mrs Sally Irvin. A full report of an exciting match can be found in Talking Sport.

The achievements were broadly spread last week with both of our Premier's Debating Challenge teams recording victories over Leeton PS during the week with thanks to the support of our debating coordinator Miss Elli Gill. Well done to our teams who will continue in the competition over the coming weeks.

The final, and perhaps greatest excitement of Week 6 was the arrival of our Parkview BBQ Trailer which was won during the 2023 Cobrapparel Australia's Best Beanie competition. Our students eagerly inspected the new asset on Friday which has had some awesome modifications made to it which were sponsored by our awesome Parkview P&C Association. Keep an eye out for the Trailer at our upcoming functions.

The new week promises to be another busy, if not abbreviated week as we engage in Kindergarten Information Sessions, continue our association with the Premiers Debating Challenge and further prepare for the school Athletics Championships, alongside the delivery of quality learning experiences and on-going preparations for all year levels ahead of Parkview In Lights.

Please consider the following as you plan for the week ahead:

WEEK 7 TERM 2

NSWPSSA Netball Knockout

Parkview's Representative Netball Team has won their way into the Riverina Quarter Finals of the State Netball Knockout after a thrilling come from behind victory over a determined Coolamon Central School at the Leeton Indoor Stadium last Tuesday.

In a tightly contested match, Parkview's greater shooting efficiency proved the difference as the home team recovered from a slow start to record a 33-30 win.

For Parkview all players made significant contributions. Airlie Chilko and Daisy Kelly were a constant threat in the attacking circle, combining for all 33 of Parkview's goals. The mid court was also a key factor in the win, with Grace Goman and Alexia Shortis proving dynamic at the attacking end of the court, while Imogen Boots was miserly with her strong defensive efforts at Wing Defence. The defensive third was also strong for the hosts with Sadie Tiffin, Zara Munro and Ruby Bryan-Doric all rotating through the defensive circle with great success.

Parkview's success means a Quarter Final Showdown with Hay PS at the Leeton Indoor Stadium in the coming weeks. More details will be shared with the community in coming days.

FINAL SCORE:

Parkview 33 (Airlie Chilko 18/25; Daisy Kelly 15/26)
Coolamon 30

Riverina PSSA Cross Country Championships

The 2024 Riverina PSSA Cross Country Championships will be hosted at the Gundagai Racecourse this coming Thursday, 14th June. 16 Parkview representatives will compete at the event following some amazing performances at the LNPSSA Championships held last month.

Good luck to our competitors - Isaac Chilko, Zahli Wall, Harrison Goman, Aiden Lewis, Louis Killen, Taite Reilly, Leah Iannelli, Chevie Dunbar, Hudson Stevens, Nalan Robertson, Imogen Boots, Zac Iannelli, Tristan Ganderton, Grace Goman, Maycie Wall and Alexia Shortis.
